

Chapter 7 and 8 Overview in Charlotte Doyle Name _____

1. Charlotte recollected that she _____ when she saw the face in the hold.
2. The distorted and grotesque head appeared _____.
cut into a _____.
3. "If it was a carving, then what _____?"
Charlotte asked herself.
4. She thought that _____ possibly had been playing a trick on her.
5. Charlotte was positive that the first one had been _____ _____ because something _____.
6. Charlotte convinced herself that _____.
7. She also realized that the captain and Zachariah both _____ and both wanted her to _____.
8. On the ship, Charlotte found it only natural to _____.
9. Meals consisted of _____.
10. On Sundays _____, _____, and _____ _____ happened.
11. The high point of Charlotte's day was when she _____ lasting around half an hour.
12. Charlotte listened to the _____ that the sailors told, and she became something of a _____.
13. Zachariah was viewed as a great _____ in spite of the cruel humor the sailors used toward him.
14. Zachariah presented Charlotte with _____, but she chose not _____.
15. When Charlotte read to the captain, he _____.
16. As the captain warned Charlotte, the crew was _____
_____; however, things she never would have thought _____.
17. Hands would be called _____.
18. When Keetch was summoned by the captain, he would _____ and
Mr. Hollybrass would take his own silent soundings and lift his eyebrows _____.
19. If the captain was provoked sufficiently, he might resort to _____.
20. _____, _____, _____ were examples of his punishments.
21. He referred to the sailors as _____.
22. When speaking about the sailors to Charlotte, he stated that before they arrived home, _____.
23. The captain accepted the ship's windless fate and set _____.
24. He said that they would be running into a storm. How right he was. But the storm _____.